
Charity Golf event raises over K100, 000

Media Release
24 August 2016

Motorist Discount Centre team were crowned winners of the 2016 Lae Daffodil Corporate Golf Challenge in last week. The annual event, sponsored over the last 6 years by Oil Search Limited and trucking and logistic company Mapai Transport attracted a field of 35 teams at the Lae Golf Club.

It is a charity event to raise funds for the Papua New Guinea Cancer Relief Society to carry out its annual programmes and support the operations of the National Cancer Treatment Centre at the Angau General Hospital in Lae.

A total of K117, 372.00 was raised during the event, from team registrations, fines, donations and the auction of a signed Kumul Jersey, which fetch K7, 000. Oil Search PNG Communications Manager, Ruth Waram thanked the Lae business community for their continued support over the years to the charity event. Waram said as a proud PNG company, Oil Search was pleased to be participating in such worthy causes, giving back to PNG.

Funds raised from this annual event have enabled the Papua New Guinea Cancer Relief Society to run the Cancer unit at the Angau General Hospital. The cancer unit is the national referral unit in the country which serves all cases, through the Daffodil Charity Golf Day, the Papua New Guinea Cancer Society has been able to set up nutrition kitchen and half way house for patients to receive treatment.

For further information;

Please contact

Ruth Waram
Oil Search Manager PNG Communications
Tel 71906078